10 Access Recordings Guide

You can access the collections by selecting 'My Recordings'

10 Access Recordings Guide

The screenshot shows a user profile for 'Test Karen' with 0 followers and 2 following. The 'My Recordings' tab is selected. Under 'Programs', there are two collections: '2025 Live Masterclass Collection' and '2024 NLP Conference Collection'. Both show 'You're a Participant' and a 'View Program' link. An arrow points from the text below to the 'View Program' link for the 2025 collection.

Choose which collection you wish you view.

As the collections are quite large, you may need to refresh the screen at this point, to nudge the page to load.

All the recordings for the current collection are listed in date order. Each topic has either 1 or 2 steps
1 step means there is a video recording only

The screenshot shows a recording topic: 'Complex Meta Programming - Understanding Purpose' with 0/2 steps. Below the title, there are two items: 'Handout' and 'Video', each with a document icon.

2 steps mean there are handouts associated with this recording, which you can download before watching the recording. If you do not wish to download or view the handouts, then just skip straight to the video.
